

Program

Workshop ‘Innovation Systems in Central and Eastern Europe Countries’

26 February 2010

Friday, 26th February

- 8.45 coffee, registration
- 9.15 welcome and opening remarks
Mathias Rauch
Fraunhofer MOEZ, Deputy Director
- 9.30 Effectiveness of polish innovation policy with special emphasis on services
Aleksandra Laskowska-Rutkowska
Warsaw School of Economics
- 10.00 Creative reconstruction: A Triple Helix-based innovation strategy in Central and Eastern Europe Countries
Marina Ranga and Henry Etzkowitz
Stanford University
- 10.30 coffee break

- 11.00 Russian innovation system and attitudes to knowledge society
Andreas Hübner
Fraunhofer MOEZ
- 11.30 Ukraine's national innovation system
Vyacheslav Solovyov
Dobrov Institute, National Academy of Sciences of the Ukraine
- 12.00 lunch break
- 13.30 Croatian innovation policy and the current economic situation
Jens Ulrich
Fraunhofer MOEZ
- 14.00 Socio-economic barriers of research and development sector in Croatia
Zoran Aralica
The Institute of Economics, Zagreb
- 14.30 coffee break
- 15.00 The economic situation of Romanian SMEs
Sascha Ruhland
Austrian Institute for SME Research
- 15.30 Challenges and barriers to innovation in the Romanian technology - The case of the industrial district Timisoara
Claudio Pellegatta
Columdae – International Business Development & Trade Agency
- 16.00 summary and outlook
Thorsten Posselt
Fraunhofer MOEZ, Director
- 16.15 end of workshop